

Vladyslav Shokot
Jr. Project Manager, Since December 2016

Vladyslav Shokot is a Jr. Project Manager at Structures Construction, LLC. He is responsible for assisting Sr. Project Managers on the ongoing projects, such as maintaining paperwork, preparing correct contracts according to the drawings, scheduling, budgeting and bidding on upcoming projects.

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATIONS

OSHA 30 Hour Training - Construction

TYPICAL REPRESENTATIVE PROJECTS

Lake Vista Apartments Ph.2, 1440 S Indiana Ave., Chicago Illinois:

The Jr. Project Manager for a multi-faceted project including new construction and extensive renovation of a multi-unit residential facility, including upgrades to the elevator lobbies, common hallways, high security areas, management offices, landscaping and site work.

1640 N Maplewood, Chicago Illinois:

Maplewood Park and the Chicago Park Districts needed a new fieldhouse that accommodated the community's needs. The new fieldhouse now provides the neighborhood with bathrooms, an office, and a club room/community area. Mr. Shokot worked as a Project Manager and was responsible for overseeing the construction of the fieldhouse from the ground up, contacting subcontractors, delivery of materials, tracking construction schedule, and corresponding with the architect.

721 Howard St., Evanston Illinois:

The City of Evanston hired Structures Construction to re-purpose an old retail space into a state-of-the-art cabaret theatre. As a Project Manager, Mr. Shokot was accountable for working with the subcontractors and making sure all renovations were done within in budget and specific time frame.

Lake Vista Apartments Ph. 1, 1440 S Indiana Ave., Chicago Illinois:

As part of the contract owner, required to build new 2 story building for use as storage facility and apartment above. Mr. Shokot worked as assistant of Project Manager and was responsible for creating contracts with subcontractors, delivery of materials, correspond with architect to submit products which is used for construction, tracking construction schedule.

CrossFit Commitment, Chicago, Illinois:

The facility needed to expand into an existing office area and perform renovation to create bigger space for the fitness area. On the behavior of the Structures Construction Mr. Shokot worked on space renovation and was responsible for contacting subcontractors and make sure that all work done in time and do not exceed budget. Under his supervision all work was done in professional manner and in time.

Mr. Shokot been involved in different types of project such as renovation, ground up construction, and represent himself as reliable and good attitude, work ethic.

PREVIOUS PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Trest Zhilstroy-1 Company, Asst. of PM, Jan 2015 to Feb 2015

At Trest Zhilstroy-1 Company Mr. Shokot has held position of Asst. of PM where he was performing tasks as superintended on the field, with his ability to create efficient schedule the project was finished ahead of original schedule. Also, as part of his responsibility he was corresponding with architect and engineer to evaluate and approve new construction work as per drawings.

Kharchkov Project, Civil Engineer intern, January 2016 to May 2016

With the unique understanding of projects Mr. Shokot under direct supervision of Professional Engineers worked on building design of structural and non-structural elements implementing this on the drawings.

PREVIOUS REPRESENTATIVE PROJECTS

LCD Saltovsky, Kharkiv, Ukraine

During the huge construction work of sixteen multi-story buildings, with multi-million budget Vladyslav was acted as assistant of Project Manager and was responsible for ordering materials, scheduling, perform punch-in list after the each section of the building is done, and in final he successfully finished project in 1 month ahead.

EDUCATION: Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering – 2016
Kharkiv National University of Architecture and Civil Engineering